

“ To me, inclusion means helping students get the best out of themselves and contribute to class in their own ways.

Student, aged 18, survey participant

Belonging starts with respect.

Different perspectives. Shared successes.

Building community.

Creating connections.

Children and Young People with Disability Australia

Scan for ideas to help you advocate for inclusion

